Shows

The winter series is complete and had good attendance. The April schooling and recognized show are filling.

Old Business

- Online Store: Chris reported that time frame production of merchandise has been very slow. She is contacting Stillwater Screen Printing to inquire about the time it is taking to turn over orders.
- Volunteer Workshop: At the March schooling show, Chris Cashel worked with three new volunteers to introduce them to the various volunteer positions and responsibilities. She received great feedback and the new volunteers were able to assist at the show.

New Business

- USDF/USEF Schooling Show Program: Discussion regarding whether we would like to participate in the recognized schooling show program starting in the 2020 show year. It was decided to table discussion while we gather the information about actual costs and fees.
- Request to Sponsor Outside shows for Year end Points awards: At this time it was decided to limit points for our year end awards to shows that are put on by CPDS.
- Maintaining Membership Privacy: Christina Harmon will continue to keep all member information on a flash drive. Only the new member name and e-mail will be shared for the purpose of new member notifications.
- Amy Mullins was going to check with Central Tech regarding one of their students doing some work for us for credit (website/e-mail communication)
- Robin Hessel is going to do some checking in regard to bringing a USDF "L" judging program to OK.

The meeting was adjourned at 5:40. Motion to adjourn was made by Amy Mullins, seconded by Chris Cashel. Unanimous approval.

The next meeting is scheduled for April 14, 2019 at 5:00pm via ZOOM.
